

WAUKESHA GREET'S 'DRIVE 'EM JACK'
THE LONE EAGLE - OF - THE PACIFIC

Can You Recall?

The day the Fageol Flyer arrived in Waukesha. On May 2, 1928, the truck with an engine made by the Waukesha Motor Company, completed its test drive which started in Oakland, Calif. Waukesha Photographer W. S. O'Brien snapped the picture of the truck and those on hand to greet it. They are (from left) Ed Est-berg, president of the Waukesha National Bank (First National Bank); Sam Perkins, treasurer of Waukesha Motor Company; Harvey J. Frame, secretary of Waukesha Motor Company and one of the city's leading lawyers (his practice is now under Lowry, Hunter and Tikalsky); Jack Rusch, California truck driver; Les Hood, service manager of Fageol Truck and Coach Company; William Theil, superintendent of Waukesha Motor Company; Hugo Deil, engine specialist at Waukesha Motor Company, and Harry Horning, president of Waukesha Motor Company. The picture was taken in front of the former Avalon Hotel.
